

CYCLING FOR SURVIVORS TOUR 2008

On May 11, 2008, Arizona Department of Public Safety Sergeant Gary Durree and a small group of cyclists will embark on a 360 mile bicycle ride across Arizona title the “Cycling for Survivors Tour 2008.” The cycling tour will start near the Arizona/New Mexico state line on May 11 and end the tour on May 17 at the Arizona/California state line at the Yuma Crossings State Park, located in Yuma. The event will take place in conjunction with the National Police Week celebration being held May 11-17, 2008.

The purpose of the tour will be to honor the memory of all Arizona fallen police officers and firefighters and raise money through the 100 Club of Arizona help to financially assist the families they left behind. This fundraising event will add a nice finishing touch to the law enforcement career of Sergeant Durree that has spanned nearly 34 years!

There will be a media availability on Monday, May 12, 2008, to be held in the afternoon after 1:00 PM, at the Arizona Department of Public Safety Tucson Office (DPS), 6401 South Tucson Boulevard (in front of the DPS Officer Memorial). The media availability will provide an opportunity to interview the Cycling for Survivors Tour coordinator and participants. The participants are all DPS employees. The additional cyclists are listed below. DPS Officer Quentin Mehr will send out notices on Monday morning as a reminder and to advise of the specific time for the media availability.

There will also be a media availability at the end of the tour for interviews when the group reaches the Yuma Crossings State Park on Saturday, May 17.

Other Cyclists:	Dave Kleinman	Brady Little	John Maciulla
	Doug Redig	Curt Reinbold	Ernest Tofani

You can support the cyclists and this effort with a donation in any amount or by pledging an amount for each mile traveled. All expenses associated with his fund raiser are carried by the participants. All donated funds will go directly the 100 Club of Arizona.
